AN ACT to amend, in certain particulars, the Constitution of the Isle of Man.

1 Short title

This Act may be cited as “The Isle of Man Constitution Amendment Act, 1919”.

2 Interpretation

“Council”, in this Act, means the Legislative Council. “House” means the House of Keys.

Convening Meetings of Legislature

3 President of Tynwald to convene meeting of Tynwald upon request

The President of Tynwald, upon receipt of a request signed by a majority of the members of either branch of Tynwald, shall, in the usual manner, and with all reasonable speed, convene a meeting of Tynwald.¹

4 President of Tynwald to convene meeting of Council upon request

The President of Tynwald, upon receipt of a request signed by a majority of the members of the Council, shall, in the usual manner, and with all reasonable speed, convene a meeting of the Council.²

5 President of Tynwald to convene meeting of House of Keys upon request

The President of Tynwald, upon receipt of a request signed by a majority of the members of the House, shall, in the usual manner, and with all reasonable speed, convene a meeting of the House.³

*Constitution of Council6 Archdeacon, Vicar-General, and Receiver-General to cease to be members of Council

From and after the expiration of one month after the next dissolution of the House (hereinafter called “the appointed day”), the Archdeacon, the Vicar-General, and the Receiver-General shall cease to be members of the Council.⁴

7 Constitution of Council

- (1) The Council comprises the following members —
 - (a) the President of Tynwald;
 - (b) the Bishop and the Attorney General; and
 - (c) eight members elected by the House (whether from their own membership or others) (“elected members”).
- (2) The Attorney General —
 - (a) continues to be a member of Tynwald and of the Council; and
 - (b) has the same rights to speak in either of those bodies as he had before the passing of the Law Officers Act 2014.
- (3) The presence of the Attorney General at a sitting of Tynwald or the Council does not reckon towards the quorum of either body.
- (4) The definition of “the Attorney General” in section 3 of the Interpretation Act 1976 does not apply for the purposes of this section but subsection (5) applies if —
 - (a) the office of the Attorney General is vacant; or
 - (b) the Attorney General is for any reason unable to attend a sitting of Tynwald or the Council.
- (5) If this subsection applies the President may authorise —
 - (a) Her Majesty’s Solicitor General for the Island; or
 - (b) a person discharging the functions of the Attorney General by virtue of a warrant under Her Majesty’s Royal Sign Manual,to attend the sitting.
- (6) A person attending a sitting of Tynwald or the Council by virtue of subsection (5) has the same rights and privileges in relation to the sitting as the Attorney General, and subsection (3) applies to that person as it applies to the Attorney General.
- (7) For the sake of clarity, the substitution of this section made by section 4 of the Law Officers Act 2014 does not revive any rule of law, right or custom in relation to membership of the Council which subsisted before the coming into operation of this section as originally enacted.⁵

*Election of Members to Council by Keys8 Election of members to the Council by the House

Where any members elected to the Council by the House go out of office pursuant to section 10 of this Act, the House shall elect, in the manner provided by section 2 of the Isle of Man Constitution (Elections to Council) Act 1971, to serve as members of the Council, such number of persons as are equivalent to the number of members who have so gone out of office; and, within three days after that election, a return shall be made, under the hand of the Speaker of the House, to the President of Tynwald certifying the decision of the House and giving the names and addresses of the persons so elected.⁶

9 [Repealed]⁷*Retirement by Rotation of Elected Members10 Retirement of elected members

17A Elected member becoming member of local authority
